Democracia Popular,* Communist newspaper in Rio de Janeiro, was founded in July 1950 by the Communist Party of Brazil (PCB) as a possible substitute for the PCB Rio daily, Imprensa Popular, in the event that the latter should be closed by Brazilian authorities. Democracia Popular made its first appearance in August 1950 and has continued to be published at irregular intervals. Its offices, originally located at Rua do Carmo #6, were recently moved to Avenida Rio Branco #257, Room 1712, thereby eliminating an extra office and bringing the paper into closer contact with other Party propaganda and publishing activities, which are directed from the same address. Democracia Popular is directed by Jose Zacarias de Sa Carvalho,* assisted by Jose de Lina Acioli. There follows a list of its agents and correspondents, by state and city.
